GYMNASIUM CLASS TO BE ORGANIZED

AT YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION FOR MEN AND BOYS

FINE DIRECTOR
Dr. A. L. Smethers Formerly a Professional Will Have Charge of Class.

A gymnasium class for young men and boys is to be organized at the Y. M. C. A. and conducted by an expert in matters pertaining to physical culture, according to an announcement by Secretary Fred M. Burnet.

Dr. A. L. Smethers, who before he took up the study of medicine was a professional physical director and connected with some of the leading Young Men's Christian Associations in his native state of Pennsylvania, will have charge of the class.

It is planned to have the class meet twice a week, in the evening. The only requisite for membership is that the person joining must be a member of the Y. M. C. A. Each person joining is expected to furnish his own gymnasium suit, while the Y. M. C. A. will furnish the necessary paraphernalia such as is found in the usual gym. Young men and boys desiring to join the class are requested to hand their names to Secretary Burnet.

That a gymnasium class is to be organized in the city, and at the Y. M. C. A. will come as a bit of good news to the general public and especially to a considerable number of young men and boys who have longed for some such opportunity of acquiring gymnasium training.

ANDERSON COUNTY CAME IN FOR GENEROUS RECOGNITION

FROM GOVERNOR IN MAKING UP THANKSGIVING LIST OF FAVORS

GETS ONE-TENTH

Of Total Number of Cases in Which Clemency Was Extended—Records.

Anderson County came in for a generous share of recognition from Governor Cole. L. Blease in making up his Thanksgiving batch of pardons, paroles and commutations of sentences, as one-tenth of the "favours" handed out on the eve of the great national holiday were extended in cases that went up from this county.

All told, the governor exercised clemency in 101 cases, and of that number Anderson County lays claim to ten. Of this number of cases five were for manslaughter, one for assault and battery with intent to kill and four for violation of the dispensary law.

Following are the cases in question with a few details in connection, this data being gathered from the court records in the office of the clerk of court:

Berry Carter (negro). Convicted at the May, 1914, term of court for Anderson County of violation of the dispensary law and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve six months upon the public works. Paroled during good behavior and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law, he shall be required to serve his sentence.

Oscar Lewis (white). Convicted at the May, 1914, term of court for Anderson County of violating the dispensary law and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve six months upon the public works. Paroled during good behavior, and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law he shall be required to serve the sentence.

Will or W. E. Gentry (white). Convicted at the June, 1914, term of court for Anderson County of violating the dispensary law and sentenced to pay a fine of $200 or to serve six months upon the public work of Anderson County. Paroled during good behavior and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law he shall be required to serve the remainder of the above mentioned sentence.

D. C. Alken (white). Convicted at the January, 1913, term of court for Anderson County, of violation of the dispensary law and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve three months upon the public works. Paroled during good behavior and upon the further condition that should he ever again be convicted of violating the dispensary law, he shall be required to serve his sentence above mentioned.

J. Allen Emerson (white). Convicted at the February, 1907, term of court for Anderson County, of murder, with recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary. Paroled, August 15, 1913, upon condition that he leave the State of South Carolina within 24 hours and never return. Pardon granted November 25, 1914.

The Emerson case is too well known to the people of Anderson County to warrant elaboration here. Emerson shot and killed Mr. Tom Drake, one of Anderson County's most prominent and successful planters, in the latter's own home. The case attracted interest throughout the upper section of the State, owing to the prominence of the parties involved.

Bob Bigby (negro). Convicted at the May, 1912, term of court for Anderson County of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. Paroled.

Bob Bigby, it will be recalled, shot and killed another negro by the name of Henry Johnson, his brother-in-law, in North Anderson, on May 8, 1913. The killing took place in the afternoon about 3 o'clock and was the outgrowth of a family quarrel.

E. Garrett Dodson (negro). Convicted at the January, 1914, term of court for Anderson County of manslaughter and sentenced to four years on public works. Paroled.

E. Garrett Dodson and George Dodson were jointly indicted for the shooting and killing of Zeke Bradley, ex Mount Pleasant church, colored. The killing occurred on Sunday, August 2, 1913, during a meeting at this church. When the case came to trial the grand jury found a no-bill against George Dodson.

Clifford Washington (negro). Convicted at the May, 1914, term of court for Anderson County for manslaughter and sentenced to three years on public works. Paroled.

Clifford Washington and Henry Harris were jointly indicted for the killing of a negro woman, Ida Kelley. The killing took place March 14, 1914, on James Pearman's place, near Hones Path, though the negroes did not live on that plantation. Washington was an Abbeville County negro. Upon trial Harris was acquitted.

Kerry Pressley (negro). Convicted at the April, 1912, term of court for Anderson County of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. Paroled.

Henry Pressley was convicted of shooting and killing one Tosa Rice.

Ryan Cox (white). Convicted at the May, 1914, term of court for Anderson County of assault and battery with intent to kill and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to serve six months on public works. Paroled.

Ryan Cox was convicted of assaulting J. A. McBrearty, occurring at Pelzer on October 25, 1913.

SECOND NUMBER LYCEUM COURSE

Delighted Large Audience at the College Auditorium Last Night.

The second number of the college lyceum course was presented at the college auditorium last night before a good sized audience. Judging from the applause and evident enjoyment of the numbers on the program, the Alkahest Favorites made good. There were three of them—a triple alliance—as one of the auditors expressed it, and each one was an artist in her line. They were Miss Mary Galley, violinist; Miss Cora Cawthon, reader; Miss Eileen Beatty, soprano. Numerous encores were responded to graciously, and judging from the number called for, Miss Cawthon was the favorite. Her readings were cleverly executed and appealed to the audience. The violin numbers by Miss Galley were faultless, as were the vocal selections rendered by Miss Beatty. A bit more animation by the latter would have helped.

The following program was rendered:

1. If I knew you and you knew me.—Mac Dermid—The Alkahest Favorites.
2. Romance and Rondo—Wienawski—Miss Galley.
3. Miracle Mary—John A. Moroso.—Miss Cawthon.
4. (a) Serenade, Schubert; (b) Bonnie Sweet Beadle. (c) April Morn.—Miss Beatty.
5. Mon Pierre—Amabary—Miss Cawthon.
6. (a) Ave Maria, Schubert; (b) Minute Waltz; (c) Perpetual Motion.—Miss Galley.
7. Aria from Traviata, Ah fors e lui—Verdi—Miss Beatty.
8. A Perfect Day—Carrie Jacobs Bond.—The Alkahest Favorites.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death."

Medicines pitched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

NOTHING REVEALED AT INVESTIGATION

Coroner's Jury Investigating Death Mystery of A. A. Boggs and His Daughter.

(By Associated Press.)

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 27.—An unexpected session of the coroner's jury, investigating the death mystery of A. A. Boggs and his 15-year-old daughter, Mary Jo, was held here today. The jury had previously adjourned until next Wednesday.

Several witnesses were examined, but nothing was revealed as to the testimony given. Neither has any announcement been made as to the cause of the deaths.

The police continue to work on the theory that Boggs and his daughter were murdered by being struck over the heads with a blunt instrument and their country home near here then burned in the hope of concealing the crime.

The charred bodies of the lawyer and young woman were found early Wednesday in the ruins of the residence and physicians have expressed the opinion that it was possible for falling timbers to have crushed the skulls.

A watch which had been worn by Mr. Boggs was found in the ruins of his home today. It had stopped at 2:05. Neighbors discovered the home in flames about five minutes before 3 Wednesday morning. The front door lock also was found in the ruins and the authorities said it showed that the door had not been locked when the house burned.
